TALK OF THE TOWN

Local Happenings Tensely Told for Busy Readers.

Lots of new suits at Pitt's.
Roller skating at the Pavilion to-night.
W. R. Durkee, job plumber, 59 Prospect; phone 426-5.

Abbott is showing some extra values in the new spring suits.
See the specials in wash goods not advertised at Vaughan's.

J. C. Griggs went to Waterbury this morning on a business visit.

Charles A. Brown went to Waterbury this morning on a business trip.

Roller skating and dancing to-night. All can have a good time at Hale's Pavilion.

Hornby's delicious old-fashioned butter-scotch in 8c and 10c packages. It's fine; try it. Red Cross Pharmacy.

The Leon L. Cole house on Maple Grove street and the B. P. White house and barn on Eastern avenue are for sale, as advertised in another column.

Carl and Paul Waterman and Ray Worthen returned to the university of Vermont at Burlington last night after a few days' visit at their homes.

Just received, another barrel of those old-fashioned horehound drops. Often imitated at home and outside, but they are never equalled. Red Cross Pharmacy.

Troup's union orchestra is prepared to furnish first class music for any and all occasions; any number of pieces required. Address A. M. Troup, 5 Laurel street, or telephone 151-11.

The Ladies' Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church held a largely attended and enjoyable meeting yesterday afternoon and evening. A program was rendered and after the business meeting a delightful supper was served to the company.

W. S. Robins, clerk in Moore & Owens Clothing store, went to Boston last evening where he will enter a Regal shoe store for two weeks' experience in the business and on his return will have charge of the Regal shoe department which Moore & Owens are soon to put into their store.

A meeting of the members of the Barre Citizens' band was held last evening at the close of the rehearsal and a permanent organization of the band was formed and officers elected. Ned J. Roberts was elected president; S. N. Parker, business manager; Louis L. Huntington, secretary and treasurer; W. E. Dufur, librarian; George E. White, musical director, and an executive board consisting of the president, secretary, treasurer, and business manager.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church held their annual spring supper at the church vestry from 5:30 to 7:30 last evening. Over 350 people were present and did full justice to the tempting menu which the ladies had prepared. The vestry was well filled during the first hour of the supper but all were waited upon promptly and there was enough for all. The menu consisted of chicken pie, mashed potatoes, cabbage salad, rolls, jelly, cake, pie, tea and coffee.

The Day of Specialists

These are times when the "Jack-atail-Trade" has no place in the world.

The SPECIALIST is the man in whom the community at large has confidence.

We are SPECIALISTS in the SHOE BUSINESS and have made a study of the needs of this special community and from the liberal increase of business each succeeding year we are satisfied that the people of Barre

have CONFIDENCE in our SHOE

EDUCATION and our efforts to please them. The majority of Barre's sensible people say "THE PLACE

TO BUY SHOES IS IN A SHOE

STORE.

We will do our best to merit this confidence. Come to us for SHOES.
